FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This has been a special weekend that has been in the works for months. Thank you for joining us and we hope this special weekend of outreach has ministered to you and your families. We are so blessed to have Randy with us today and this amazing way of seeing the Gospel of Jesus Christ presented. Thank you. Randy for your traveling from Branson to be with us!

When these events conclude, I will begin looking at our calendar for 2025. If there is a suggestion, please email it to me at pastorcharles@alvanaz.org or bring it in writing and give it to me at church. I need it in writing so I don't forget it and that it can be considered in our planning meeting in January. I have almost completed the calendar for distribution that will show the events in the church for the rest of 2024. I am hoping to include it in next week's bulletin for you.

To those who helped with our Fall Extravaganza, thank you! Your help was what made this event successful. We will go back and look at things; what we did well, and what can be done better for next year. But I am so excited that we had our first one and it will only allow it to improve in the coming years. I even already have an idea for our main event next year.

Have a great week! I love you all! -Pastor Charles

Grace

Grace, a gift unearned, yet freely given,
A light that guides, a heart forgiven.
It lifts the weary, heals the soul,
Restoring peace, making whole.

In every moment, it abides,
A gentle hand, where love resides.
Grace, like rain, renews, restores,
Forever leading to open doors.
